Who can apply?

Students wishing to participate in the Freiburg Global Exchange programs

- must be enrolled in a degree-seeking study program at the University of Freiburg at the time of the application and for the entirety of the stay abroad.
- University of Freiburg students from all disciplines can apply, with the exception of medicine, pharmacy, dentistry, clinical psychology, law, and business. Students of the aforementioned disciplines may be able to apply for disciplines outside of but related to their own area of study. Admission to any course of study in any academic field may be subject to restrictions.
- Applicants must have very good English language proficiency, confirmed by a valid TOEFL score report. Applicants for the French-language Université de Montréal must have very good French language proficiency at least at a C1 level.
- Applicants should have an overall GPA (Notendurchschnitt) no lower than 2,5 on the German scale.

The application process

Please note that within the Freiburg Global Exchange, you apply for the respective country and not for a specific university. On the required preference list, you will indicate which universities you would like to attend. Your preferences will be considered in the selection process, however, you may be selected for any of the participating partner universities at which you can pursue your studies.

The mandatory information sessions (Gruppenberatungen) cannot take place in the summer term 2020 due to corona-related restrictions. The necessary information has been compiled into a fact sheet. Students interested to apply must contact Ms. Kästner well before the deadline to receive the fact sheet directly from her/the International Office. Students must confirm that they have carefully read and understood the information provided therein.

An application is not possible if the fact sheet has not been requested and confirmed as read before the deadline.

The application must be submitted to the International Office upon the deadline and should include all of the below listed documents. All documents must be submitted in English unless otherwise indicated. Official application forms (marked with an asterisk in the list of documents below*) can be found in the Student Portal's Download Center, see link below. Students will receive details on how to submit the application with the fact sheet.

Please complete the application on a computer and compile one paper copy of each document, one-sided prints only. Do not use folders, transparent plastic sleeves, paper-clips, staples or any other type of binding. Please also keep a hardcopy version as well as a digital version of all documents (with the exception of the confidential letter of recommendation) for yourself. You may need these documents at a later point in the application process.

The documents to submit upon the deadline are as follows:

- University of Freiburg Global Exchange application form* including one attached photo
- most recent certificate of matriculation (Studienbescheinigung) in German or English
- list of preferences*
- curriculum vitae (one page)
- study proposal (academic reasons for the stay abroad, 3 pages maximum, double-spaced)
- letter of recommendation from one university professor/lecturer* (confidential document, must be submitted by professor) please note that some partners may require a second recommendation letter at a later stage of the application process
- transcript of records including, if possible, the current GPA
- Master students: Bachelor degree certificate and transcript of records for the Bachelor
- university entrance qualification (Abiturzeugnis), copy
- language proficiency: official TOEFL scores
