

Educational Quality at Universities for inclusive international Programmes (EQUIiP)

What is the aim of EQUIiP?

- Develop a competence profile for educational developers working with academic teaching staff in internationalised higher education.
- Create a comprehensive set of train-the-trainer modules and materials for educational developers.
- Publish the profile and modules on a platform with free access in 2019.

Who is EQUIiP for?

- Educational developers
- Curriculum designers
- Higher education policy makers
- Teacher trainers and instructors

Who is EQUIiP?

EQUIiP is an Erasmus+ project carried out from 2016 to 2019 by seven European universities:

- University of Groningen, NL (lead)
- University of Freiburg, DE
- Aarhus University, DK
- University of Copenhagen, DK
- Complutense University of Madrid, ES
- University of Bordeaux, FR
- Glasgow Caledonian University, UK

EQUIiP Train-the-Trainer Modules:

- A: Teaching and Learning in the International Classroom
- B: Intended International Learning Outcomes; Intercultural and Global Competences
- C: Assessment, Feedback and Reflective Processes
- D: Facilitating Group Dynamics to Enhance Intercultural Development and Learning
- E: The Role of Language and Language Diversity

Participants who complete all 5 modules earn 2 ECTS credits and an EQUIiP Certificate

Find out more:

www.equiip.eu

Contact:

Andreas Kolb, Sprachlehrinstitut (SLI)

andreas.kolb@sli.uni-freiburg.de