Benefit From Intercultural Mentoring

Experienced students guide new international students through the beginning of their studies (mentors)

- ✓ coming from various faculties and departments
- ✓ sharing their study experiences for one semester
- ✓ supporting personal, professional and social queries

New international students from all degree programs (mentees)

- ✓ receiving subject-specific tips and tricks for their studies
- ✓ gaining personal information about university procedures
- ✓ simplifying their start by quickly establishing a network

The Student Mentoring Competence Network offers

- ✓ a professional matching, based on subject of study and personal profile
- ✓ an introductory event to get to know each other
- ✓ different mentoring-formats: one-to-one- or group mentoring
- ✓ voluntary workshops and trainings with tips and tricks
- ✓ working material for shaping the mentoring relationship
- ✓ a closing event with an evaluation and a certificate for successful participation

What Are The Conditions?

- ✓ Time frame: one semester
- ✓ Personal contact
- ✓ Voluntarily basis
- ✓ No hierarchy
- ✓ Professional Support

Mentor's And Mentee's Feedback

Mentors' feedback:

“I like that the format is free and exchange is possible according to the needs of the mentees.”

“The workshops and trainings were very helpful. The advice and the assistance of the competence network made me feel that I am not alone.”

Mentees' feedback:

“When I just started [...], I was still a bit lost at times due to the overwhelming amount of new information about my pathway in [...] studies and career.”

“He helped me sort out the information and explained the structure[...]. He told me about his experiences and opportunities in my field [...].”
